

The Vets

Bombs explode,
bullets fly,
I'm thanking God I didn't die.
That's not what all that Vets do
Some handle computers,
others guard buildings,
more think tactics.
You may think that all veterans
Duked it out in battles and in wars,
But not all are on the front lines,
Not all vets risk their lives,
Even though they still fight for our lives
Veterans still,
They served the military nonetheless,
Great veterans deserve a day
For remembrance & respect,
In their honor we give them this day,
Lets just hope others come to stay.
